Munduari begiratzeko

Look at the World

Kirmen Uribe

A way to look at the world, a way to sing with old friends, to take the sun on the wall, a way to know how to wait.

A way to touch the beech trees, to read the surface of skins, a way to smell the south wind, a way to weep in the car.

Not the best way maybe,
not the loveliest way maybe,
too old, too small, maybe.

A way to meet someone's eyes, a way to ask the questions, a way to take someone's hand, a way to have a dream.

Not the best way maybe,
not the loveliest way maybe,
too old, too small, maybe,
maybe.
